About Cirian Villavicencio

Cirian is the current chair of the Political Science Department at San Joaquin Delta College in Stockton, CA. He was appointed by Governor Jerry Brown, Jr. to the California Commission on Asian and Pacific Islander American Affairs and currently chairs the commission on behalf of the four million AAPIs living in our great state. Cirian represented California as an Obama pledged delegate twice for the Democratic National Convention in 2008 & 2012. He was also elected as a state delegate in 2009 & 2010.

Cirian believes in protecting progressive values and will support leaders who champion equity, economic prosperity, and respecting human dignity. Cirian kindly requests for your vote and encourages you to vote for the Progressive Slate.
